Sonia Delaunay was born in the Russia. Her family were very poor, so she was adopted by her aunt and uncle. They were rich and took her to visit many other countries. They visited many art galleries. Her teachers at school could see how good she was at art and encouraged her to study art. She kept on painting until she was 94.

She used shapes and bright colour in her work.

'Verhythm’  ‘Rhyme’  ‘Untitled’

She did this when she was 90 years old.

Activity: Work in the style of Sonia Delaunay

1. Colour the outlines of the paintings. Try to put different colours next to each other.

2. Make your own designs.
a. Begin with a blank sheet of paper, or the back of this booklet. Use paint, pencils, crayons or whatever you have.
b. Draw round something that has the shapes you want like bricks, boxes, plates or cups
c. Make a design with squares and rectangles or circles or different shapes
d. Colour the shapes you have drawn.

3. Cut some paper or fabric into different sized circles. Stick them into a design on some paper or card.
