

History - Transport

What is transport and how has it changed?

What I already know....

- People made things to help us
- The things we use change over time
- Events happened in the past

Key Vocabulary

Canal - piece of water made by humans for boats

Invention - Imagining something, then creating it

Migration - People moving from one part of the world to another

Pollution - Waste material that hurts the planet

Travel - Going from one place to another

Technology - Something made by man to help people

Important People

Orville & Wilbur Wright - They designed, built, and flew powered airplane in 1903

George Stephenson He built the first public railway line in the world to use steam locomotives

In 1905 he produced the first car that lots of people could afford - the Model T Ford.

Key Facts

- Horses have been used as transport for 5000 years.
- The first car lots of people could afford was called the Model T. It was made a long time ago in 1905.
- Canals were built to transport things like coal and fabric
- People use planes to travel all over the world.
- Some types of transport cause pollution which is bad for the environment
- Today lots of cars are made that use electric which is better for the environment.
- The first manned space flight was by a Russian man named Yuri Gagarin.